Who Sits Where?

This is what we suggest at Peterstone Court

We recommend that you have no more than ten on the top table as it makes the table too long.

Do we have to have a line-up?

This depends on your personal choice, but we would remind you that your reception is sometimes the first time you may have met each other's family and this is a very good time for this to take place. If you do take the option of a line up the only people to make up the line should be – the Bride, the Groom and both sets of parents.

Who says what & when?

Speeches following the cake cutting, ceremony and champagne serving and we recommend that you should follow this order:

First – Father of the Bride

Second – The Groom

Third (optional) – Groom's Father

Fourth – any one of the guests

(We suggest that you make sure that there are equal speakers from both sides of the family.

Fifth – The Best Man

Who Toasts Whom?

The Father of the Bride toasts the Bride & Groom

The Groom proposes the Bridesmaids

The Father of the Groom should toast the Bride & Groom

The Best Man responds to the Groom and thanks the Groom for his toast and then toasts the Bride & Groom
